

Simogamo-jinja Shrine

KYOTO

Gion • Kiyomizudera • Ginkakuji

©2017 MAP&NEWS.net

Ginkakuji Temple, which reflects the light that shines from the faces of those watching the moon rising above Mt. Tsukimachiyama.

You can enjoy walking the way along the waterside in all seasons. It is called "the Path of Philosophy", because philosopher Kitaro Nishida walked this way every day.

It is the shrine was Built in the Meiji era. A garden is very beautiful.

This big Sanmon Gate is famous for Ishikawa Goemon saying "What an amazing view" with a swaggering pose in Kabuki.

There is the grave of Samurais including Ryoma and Shintaro Nakaoka are dead in the war of the end of Edo era.

This temple predates the transfer of the capital to Heian-kyo, and is closely associated with the great general Sakanoue no Tamuramaro. You can take in the seasonal beauty of Higashiyama from the Kiyomizu viewing platform.

0m 150m 300m
6 Minutes on foot